Michaelmas Term 2017

Chapel Services and Music

MAGDALEN COLLEGE OXFORD
COVER IMAGE: DETAIL FROM MAGDALEN COLLEGE LIBRARY MS LAT 5, A FIFTEENTH-CENTURY FRENCH BOOK OF HOURS
We welcome you to our worshipping community at Magdalen. Prayer and praise have been offered to God in this place since the fifteenth century, when the College was founded by William of Waynflete, Bishop of Winchester. The statutes of 1480 make provision for a Choir comprised of sixteen boy Choristers and a number of adult Clerks, ‘that the worship of God, from whom all good things come, might be increased more widely and better sustained’. That tradition continues unchanged today. The Choirmaster at Magdalen retains the ancient Latin title \textit{Informator Choristarum}, and among those who have held the post over the centuries are John Sheppard, Daniel Purcell, Sir John Stainer, Sir William McKie, and, in more recent years, Dr Bernard Rose.

It is the aim of the Dean of Divinity and the Informator Choristarum that all our services here should be dedicated to the glory of God. Our music is not an end in itself but part of a larger whole. We hope that in the singing and in the silence, in the spoken word and in the beauty of this house of God, you will feel that greater presence, and be blessed by the peace that passes all understanding.

MARK WILLIAMS

MICHAELMAS TERM 2017

Choral Services

Services are normally sung by Magdalen College Choir (men and boys). Evensong on Saturdays is normally sung by Magdalen Consort of Voices (men and women). Tuesdays are usually sung by the Choristers alone, and Fridays by the Academical Clerks alone. Details are given in the Music List when services depart from this pattern, such as during the school half-term holiday (20 to 27 October). On Sundays, at the Eucharist, there is a short homily of approximately five minutes, and at Evensong a sermon of approximately ten minutes. Evensong on Sundays is followed by drinks in the Antechapel.

Organ music

Organ music plays an integral part in our liturgy. Alexander Pott, Assistant Organist, and William Fox, Organ Scholar, play the organ for the majority of the services in Chapel. At Eucharists and Evensongs on Sundays in Michaelmas Term, the Informator Choristarum, Assistant Organist and Organ Scholar will play voluntaries based on chorale melodies, to mark the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther’s 95 Theses.

Retiring Collections

Our retiring collections will go to support the work of our charity for Michaelmas Term, USPG, United Society Partners in the Gospel www.uspg.org.uk, an Anglican mission agency which seeks to support churches around the world.

Supporting the Choir and Chapel

The Chapel and Choir are grateful for the generous support of the College for their core activities, but look to benefactors to support additional activities, including recordings, concerts and tours. If you are interested in joining the Friends of Magdalen College Choir or wish to discuss ways of supporting music at the College, please contact the Informator Choristarum, through Melanie Bennette, at choir@magd.ox.ac.uk.
Membership of the Choir

The Informator Choristarum, Mark Williams, is always pleased to hear from prospective applicants for Choristerships, Academical Clerkships and Organ Scholarships. To arrange an informal meeting, please email Melanie Bennette, the Chapel and Choir PA, at choir@magd.ox.ac.uk.

By reading the scriptures I am so renewed that all nature seems renewed around me and with me. The sky seems to be a pure, a cooler blue, the trees a deeper green. The whole world is charged with the glory of God and I feel fire and music under my feet.
