Hilary Term 2020

Chapel Services and Music

MAGDALEN COLLEGE OXFORD
We welcome you to our worshipping community at Magdalen. Prayer and praise have been offered to God in this place since the fifteenth century, when the College was founded by William of Waynflete, Bishop of Winchester. The statutes of 1480 make provision for a Choir comprising sixteen boy Choristers and a number of adult Clerks, ‘that the worship of God, from whom all good things come, might be increased more widely and better sustained’. That tradition continues unchanged today. The Choirmaster at Magdalen retains the ancient Latin title Informator Choristarum, and among those who have held the post over the centuries are John Sheppard, Daniel Purcell, Sir John Stainer, Sir William McKie, and, in more recent years, Dr Bernard Rose.

It is the aim of the Dean of Divinity and the Informator Choristarum that all our services here should be dedicated to the glory of God. Our music is not an end in itself but part of a larger whole. We hope that in the singing and in the silence, in the spoken word and in the beauty of this house of God, you will feel that greater presence, and be blessed by the peace that passes all understanding.

MARK WILLIAMS

Choral Services

Services are normally sung by Magdalen College Choir (men and boys). Evensong on Saturdays is normally sung by Magdalen Consort of Voices (men and women). Tuesdays are usually sung by the Choristers alone, and Fridays by the Academical Clerks alone. Details are given in the Music List when services depart from this pattern, such as during the school half-term holiday (15th to 21st February). On Sundays, at the Eucharist there is a short homily of approximately five minutes, and at Evensong a sermon of approximately ten minutes. Eucharists on Sundays are followed by a simple lunch in Hall, and Evensong on Sundays is followed by drinks in the Antechapel. Members of the College and University are welcome at all services, as are members of the public.

Visiting Choirs and Musicians

The renowned period instrument ensemble, His Majestys Sagbutts and Cornetts, will join the Consort of Voices for the Sung Eucharist for the Conversion of St Paul on Saturday 26th January. On 10th February, the College’s non-audition choir, the Magdalen Singers, will sing Evensong, directed by Rupert Jackson. We are pleased to welcome young singers from the Pimlico Musical Foundation, who join the College Choir for Evensong on Saturday 22nd February, and on Tuesday 10th March, the Choristers will be joined in Choral Evening Prayer by singers from the Maîtrise de Garçons de Colmar.

Organ music

Organ music plays an integral part in our liturgy. Alexander Pott and Rory Moules play the organ for the majority of the services in Chapel.

Retiring Collections

Our retiring collections will go to support the work of the Chapel’s chosen charity for Hilary Term, the Oxford Foodbank. This charity seeks to reduce food waste and food poverty in the Oxford area, by collecting surplus food from supermarkets and other suppliers, and delivering it to over eighty charities for distribution.

Supporting the Choir and Chapel

The Chapel and Choir are grateful for the generous support of the College for their core activities, but look to benefactors to support additional activities, including recordings, concerts and tours. If you are interested in joining the Friends of Magdalen College Choir or wish to discuss ways of supporting music at the College, please contact the Informator Choristarum, through Melanie Bennette, at choir@magd.ox.ac.uk, or collect a leaflet from the back of the Chapel.

Membership of the Choir

The Informator Choristarum, Mark Williams, is always pleased to hear from prospective applicants for Choristerships, Academical Clerkships and Organ Scholarships. To arrange an informal meeting, please email Melanie Bennette, the Chapel and Choir PA, at choir@magd.ox.ac.uk.

   Though these all be gone,
Our vict’ry has been won;
The Kingdom ours remaineth.
