Magdalen College Oxford

Development Administrator
Job Reference: DO19001
(Part-time, 25hrs per week)

FURTHER PARTICULARS

Magdalen College is seeking to recruit a bright and enthusiastic team player to join its Development Office. Working closely with the rest of the Development Team, the Development Administrator will be involved in supporting a wide range of fundraising and alumni engagement activities in one of the largest College Development Offices in Oxford.

The position requires excellent IT, numerical, organisational, administrative and communication skills, as well as a high level of accuracy and flexibility, and the ability to work independently. The successful candidate will be cooperative and willing to help – a good team player in a small friendly office.

Job Description

The principal duties of the post will be:

- Dealing with general enquiries from alumni by telephone, email and post
- Supporting the Data Insight & Research Officer and Development Officer with gift administration and updating database records
- Providing administrative support for the College’s alumni events programme (e.g. name badges, place cards etc.)
- Providing additional administrative support for the Development Officer during telethon campaigns
- Supporting the Development Director with travel arrangements and preparation for meetings
- Circulating papers for committee meetings and coordinating attendance at the meeting
• Regular tasks will include: dealing with the post, sending invoices to accounts for payment, scanning correspondence, keeping filing up to date, maintaining stationery levels, and answering colleagues’ telephones in their absence.

• Providing general office administrative support

• Any other appropriate tasks as deemed necessary for the successful functioning of the Development Office

The Development Administrator reports to the Deputy Development Director and liaises with staff, Fellows and alumni.
