TUTOR'S CERTIFICATE (Tutor must be a member of the Tutorial Board.)

This application has my approval and I certify that the vacation study is directly related to the approved course of study and is necessary in the sense that the student's progress will be seriously prejudiced if he/she is unable to undertake it. It falls within the category which I have ticked below:

- University examination: give date of last exam held during the vacation:
- Compulsory vacation course: organised by the University (not funded by Department).
- University submission date
- Work on a compulsory research project
- Making up residence and/or study lost through illness (a medical certificate may be required)
- Tutorials postponed at tutor's request and held in the vacation
- Reading and revision.

VACATION STUDY GRANTS 2020-2021

Grants of £12.76 per night are available to all current undergraduates for essential academic work in Oxford during the vacation. Grants are available from 1 August each academic year:

- 30 nights for students taking FHS examinations (including students taking examinations in the second, third or fourth year),
- 15 nights for those taking Prelims, Moderations, or Honour Moderations in vacation or compulsory vacation courses, and
- 10 nights for others.

Those living out of College in Oxford are also eligible. Grants are not available for students who are out of residence, or who are returning to Oxford to study for or sit re-sit examinations.

Students must apply for a grant before the end of Week 6 of the term preceding the vacation residence. No late or retrospective application will be considered, unless in exceptional circumstances.

No internship or work experience may be funded by this grant.

PROCEDURE

There is a two-step process for obtaining a vacation study grant:

APPLICATION

The application form is available from the internal pages of the College website. The form requires the signature of a subject tutor (who must be a member of the Tutorial Board) and the tutor must state in which category the application falls. A completed application form should then be returned electronically to the Tutorial Administrator (louise.robson@magd.ox.ac.uk) by noon of Friday of Week 6 of the term preceding vacation residence. Email confirmation of the outcome of grant applications is sent to successful applicants by the Tutorial Administrator, with a claim form attachment.

(NB: For those requiring College accommodation a separate, additional application form for vacation residence is available from the Conference and Accommodation Office in the Home Bursary.)

CLAIM

In order to receive a Vacation Study Grant a student must complete a claim form confirming the dates of the vacation residence. The claim must be returned electronically to the Tutorial Administrator, by noon on Friday of Week 1 of the term after the vacation concerned. Vacation study grants are paid directly into students' bank accounts later that term.
