

New Room

Although named the New Room, this is actually located in one of the oldest parts of Magdalen College, close to the Great Tower in Chaplains Quad. The New Room with its Ante Room provides a self-contained venue for private dining for up to 44. Pre-dinner drinks are held in the Ante Room, prior to your candle-lit dinner served in the New Room.

Informal receptions and light buffets for up to 70 can also be held in these two rooms.

The Ante Room offers a venue for small working lunches for up to 15, and is also the location for coffee breaks when meeting in seminar rooms nearby.

The New Room is our Fellows' private dining room, and as such is not available for hire in term time.
