Trinity Term 2022

Chapel Services and Music

MAGDALEN COLLEGE OXFORD
EXTRACT FROM THE ETON CHOIRBOOK (ETON COLLEGE MS 178) SHOWING ‘DOMINE CAELI TERRAEQUE’ BY RICHARD DAVY (LISTED AS A SCHOLAR AT MAGDALEN IN 1483 AND INFORMATOR CHORISTARUM BETWEEN 1490 & 1492). IMAGE REPRODUCED BY PERMISSION OF THE PROVOST AND FELLOWS OF ETON COLLEGE.

THE INSCRIPTION AT THE END SUGGESTS THAT THE PIECE (WHICH WILL BE SUNG AT EVENSONG ON 15th MAY) WAS COMPOSED IN THE COURSE OF ONE DAY DURING DAVY’S TIME AT THE COLLEGE - ‘HANC ANTIPHONAM COMPOSUIT RICARDUS DAVY UNO DIE COLLEGI MAGDALENE OXONIIIS’.
We welcome you to our worshipping community at Magdalen. Prayer and praise have been offered to God in this place since the fifteenth century, when the College was founded by William of Waynflete, Bishop of Winchester. The statutes of 1480 make provision for a Choir comprising sixteen boy Choristers and a number of adult Clerks, ‘that the worship of God, from whom all good things come, might be increased more widely and better sustained’. That tradition continues unchanged today. The Choirmaster at Magdalen retains the ancient Latin title Informator Choristarum, and among those who have held the post over the centuries are John Sheppard, Daniel Purcell, Sir John Stainer, Sir William McKie, and, in more recent years, Dr Bernard Rose.

It is the aim of the Dean of Divinity and the Informator Choristarum that all our services here should be dedicated to the glory of God. Our music is not an end in itself but part of a larger whole. We hope that in the singing and in the silence, in the spoken word and in the beauty of this house of God, you will feel that greater presence, and be blessed by the peace that passes all understanding.

MARK WILLIAMS

TRINITY TERM

Choral Services

Services are normally sung by the College Choir made up of boy Choristers, educated at Magdalen College School, and male and female Academical Clerks, who are ordinarily students at the College. Evensong on Saturdays is normally sung by the Consort of Voices, in which sopranos join the Academical Clerks. Tuesdays are usually sung by the Choristers alone, and Fridays by the Academical Clerks alone. Compline on Tuesdays is usually sung by two cantors drawn from the Academical Clerks and Consort of Voices. Details are given in the Music List when services depart from this pattern, such as during the school half-term holiday (29th May to 3rd June). At Festal Evensongs marking saints’ days and major feasts of the Church’s year, a seasonal antiphon is sung. On Sundays, at the Eucharist, there is a short homily of approximately five minutes, and at Evensong (in some weeks) a sermon of approximately ten minutes. On Sundays, the Eucharist is followed by a simple lunch in the College Hall, and Evensong by drinks in the Antechapel.

Organ music

Organ music plays an integral part in our liturgy. Alexander Pott (Assistant Organist) and Romain Bornes (Organ Scholar) play for the majority of the services in Chapel, assisted from time to time by the Informator Choristarum and Organist, Mark Williams, who ordinarily directs the Choir. The Mander organ has been removed from the Chapel prior to the installation of a new instrument by Orgelbau Eule during the second half of 2022. An electronic instrument will be used during services this term, and scaffolding will be in place around the organ screen during the first part of the term.

Retiring Collections

Our retiring collections will go to support the work of the Chapel’s chosen charity for the term, Cara (the Council for At-Risk Academics), which provides urgently-needed help to academics in immediate danger, those forced into exile, and many who choose to work on in their home countries despite serious risks. Cara also supports higher education institutions whose work is at risk or compromised.

Membership of the Choir

The Informator Choristarum, Mark Williams, is always pleased to hear from prospective applicants for Choristerships, Academical Clerkships and Organ Scholarships. To arrange an informal meeting, please email Melanie Bennette, the Chapel and Choir PA, at choir@magd.ox.ac.uk.
APRIL TO JULY 2022

Supporting the Choir and Chapel

The Chapel and Choir are grateful for the generous support of the College for their core activities, but look to benefactors to support additional activities, including recordings, concerts and tours. If you are interested in joining the Friends of Magdalen College Choir or wish to discuss ways of supporting music at the College, please contact the Informator Choristarum, through Melanie Bennette, at choir@magd.ox.ac.uk, or collect a leaflet from the back of the Chapel.

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

The whole of the church calendar unveils the Trinity. The Father sends the son at Advent and Christmas, and the son manifests the glory of the Father during Epiphany. He offers Himself as a perfect sacrifice to the Father on Good Friday, and the Father rewards His self-offering by raising Him from the dead. Ascended to His Father, He received the Spirit, whom He pours out on the disciples. Peter Leithart
