ACADEMIC DRESS

Correct academical dress must be worn at the Matriculation ceremony, when sitting University examinations, and when attending the degree ceremony. Academical dress consists of 'sub fusc' clothing, comprising of:

- (1) one of the following:
 - (a) a dark suit with dark socks
 - (b) a dark skirt with black tights or stockings
 - (c) dark trousers with dark socks
- (2) dark coat if required
- (3) black shoes
- (4) plain white collared shirt or blouse
- (5) a black bow tie or a white bow tie or a full-length black tie or a black ribbon
- (6) the appropriate gown and a mortar board or soft cap

Gowns should be worn as a matter of courtesy when calling formally on the President, and are required at President's Collections. They are worn at formal Hall and at Guest Nights. Undergraduates wear Commoners' gowns or, if they are elected Demies or Scholars, Scholars' gowns. Organ Scholars and Academical Clerks wear Scholars' gowns.

Graduates wear the Post Graduate Gown (Advanced Student Gown). Second BA students wear Commoners' gowns, unless they have an Oxford undergraduate degree, in which case they wear the Post Graduate Gown.

You are not able to wear a gown from another university. Students with a Cambridge University gown may wear this to the Matriculation ceremony but not to any other events.

Following is an order form to enable you to pre-order your academic dress.

Academic Dress

All undergraduates are required to wear a gown on several occasions during their time at Oxford. This is known as 'sub fusc'. To make life easier the JCR have an arrangement with Walter's of Oxford, a top quality academic dress suppliers with 140 years of experience. If you buy a cap, gown and tie together you get a discount, as well as the opportunity to get discounts on other products as part of the sub fusc package. What's more, the bill will be added to your batells, the college account that you don't settle until the following term. Fill in this form and send it back to College with your other Freshers paperwork, and your academic dress will be waiting for you upon arrival in October.
